Case called at 3:06 pm [On Plaintiff's Motion to Withdraw] Attorneys Ann M Meckstroth & David C Van Dyke appear by telephone for Plaintiffs CHARLES A JOYCE & JAMES R VOIGT. Attorney Robert W Roth in court for Defendant PEPSICO INC. Attorney John R Storino appears by telephone for Defendant PEPSICO INC. Attorney Michael J. Hanrahan iappears by telephone for Defendant WIS-PAK INC. Attorney Matthew R. Falk in court for Defendant CAROLINA CANNERS INC. Atty Van Dyke-won't cause long delay, need 28 days. Plaintiff's are seeking new Counsel at this time. Believe new Counsel will not need extension on scheduling order. Atty Storino-no position, 28 days is reasonable Atty Larson-no position, 28 days is reasonable Atty Hanrahan-concern for losing oral argument date in April; will be gone week following Easter Atty Roth-prefer response from new Counsel ASAP, do not believe can move forward w/April date Atty Falk-submitted opposition in affidavit, case has progressed for nearly one year, request that Atty Van Dyke file brief. Reasonable to have Counsel file response brief by 10th, reply brief by 24th & keep April hearing date. New Counsel can file motion to adjourn if needed. Upon questioning of the Court regarding "pitfalls" to client; potential exposure w/no facutal basis, hanging over their heads. Court/Counsel discuss objections Atty Van Dyke-extension requested is for fairness of clients,not a delay tactic. New Counsel will need time to review. Didn't create conflict. Court grants motion to withdraw Conditioned on 1-written substitution of Counsel by end of business 3/22/10; 2-firm date for oral arguments on 4/20/10 at 1 pm; 3-new Counsel may not ask for anything beyond what has been scheduled Counsel confirm they will be available on 4/20/10 for oral arguments, Atty Klingeman for Malone. Court/Counsel discuss briefing schedule: Response brief due: 4/1/10 by 1:00 pm, Reply by 4/14/10 EOB. NEXT: (1) Atty Van Dyke to draft (2) Reschedule oral arguments 4/20/10 at 1:00 pm - Send notices

97 07-12-2010 Motion hearing Erwin, Jacqueline R. Markwardt, Susan
Additional Text:
 Case called at 1:32 pm [on Plaintiff's Motion for leave to file amended complaint] Attorney Michael J. Hanrahan in Court for Defendant WIS-PAK INC. Attorney Larson in Court for Defendant THOMAS M HILES. Attorney Daniel Treuder in Court on behalf of Attorney Robert E Barnes for Plaintiff CHARLES A JOYCE and Plaintiff JAMES R VOIGT. Attorney Robert W Roth in court for Defendant PEPSICO INC. Attorneys John R Storino & Dean Panos appears by telephone for Defendant PEPSICO INC. Attorney Carl Metz in court for Defendant CAROLINA CANNERS INC. Atty Treuder-amended complaint will enhance litigations; in regards to re-service, no prejudice Atty Roth-reviewed dismissal from improper service, understand Plaintiff can seek leave. Since elimination of special appearance, PepsiCo was not actually in suit. PepsiCo filed motions in opposition to protect its interests. Leave to amend should be denied, since amendment would not stand. Atty Hanrahan-New claims are present in complaint, those matters have never been addressed by the Court. Plaintiff claims they will not pursue those claims, but want them reserved; object. Prejudice is time/money to defendants. Should not have to reproduce matters on same facts. No new facts were discovered, WisPak should be dismissed. Atty Metz-should not be permitted to file amended complaint, can not stand Atty Larson-adopt Atty Metz's statements to the Court; same applies to Mr. Hiles as interests are same. Request Court enter judgment as requested by Atty Metz Counsel indicate that there are no objections to form of order proposed by Atty Metz Atty Hanrahan-request the Court consider same order for WisPak. No objections from Counsel on this order Court endorses order of Atty Metz; informs Atty Hanrahan that order for WisPak is not in file Rebuttal argument by Atty Treuder: Would like to put on hold until appeal is complete; alternatively If Court is inclined to dismiss against WisPak, Carolina Cannners & Thomas Hiles, would like to resubmit & redraft to remove those Defendants and continue only with Pepsico on amended complaint. Court informs parties that It will give parties written decision
